

Biography

Department of the Army

Carlton M. Foshay

Director/ Senior Contracting Official
U.S. Army Mission and Installation Contracting
Command, Mission Contracting Center
Fort Leavenworth, Kansas

In July 2011, Mr. Foshay was assigned as the Director, Mission and Installation Contracting Command, Mission Contracting Center (MCC) Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. In August 2011, Mr. Foshay was appointed as the Senior Contracting Official in support of the Mission Contracting Center, Fort Leavenworth support mission to the aligned customer base. This position is responsible for all requirements in support of the Mission Contracting Office, Fort Leavenworth, the Installation Contracting Office, Fort Gordon and the Installation Contracting Office, Fort Rucker.

Selected as the Director of Contracting, Mr. Foshay arrived at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas in March 2007, where he received his appointment as an Unlimited Contracting Officer for the United States of America. The appointment was issued by the Army Contracting Agency, Principal Assistant Responsible for Contracting, Northern Region Contracting Center. Mr. Foshay received an additional appointment by the Director of Contracting, Northern Region Contracting center as the Part Time Small Business Specialist in support of the Fort Leavenworth mission. Mr. Foshay is a member of the United States Army Acquisition Corp and is Level III certified as Contracting Professional in the specialty field of Contracting.

Mr. Foshay's previous career assignments 2004-2007 Deputy Commander, Wiesbaden Contracting Center, 1997-2004 Chief, Regional Contracting Office, Grafenwoher, 1989-1997 Chief regional Contracting Office Bad Kreuznach, 1986-1989 Contract Specialist Naval Weapons Center, China Lake California, 1982-1986, Supervisory Contract Specialist, Fort Irwin, California, 1962-1982 United States Marine Corps served in the occupational Specialty of Contracting at various locations to include, Hawaii, Parris Island, South Carolina, Okinawa, Japan, Washington D.C., Treasure Island, California, Vietnam, Barstow, California, and Norfolk, Virginia.

Awards: Commanding General United States Army, Europe Achievement Award, Commanding General award as Acquisition Professional of the Year, Head Contracting Agency award as Acquisition Professional of the year, Army Achievement Medal for Civilian Service 3 times, and the Navy Commendation Medal.